The message of Minister of Education
"Read by the name of Allah"

We express our gratitude to Almighty Allah who bestowed upon us life and the ability to read and write and we send endless salutation to Hazrat Muhammad (PBUP) whose first divine message from Almighty Allah is "Read"!

As it is obvious, the year of 1397 was named as "Education Year". Therefore, Afghanistan education system will witness many fundamental quality changes in its different spheres. Teachers, students, curriculum/textbooks, schools, administrations and Parents' Councils are the six basic elements of Afghanistan education which play an important role in expanding and developing of education of a country. At such a fateful moment, the leadership and the entire family of Afghanistan Education is committed to create fundamental changes in the development and expansion of the current education system in Afghanistan.

Thus, reforming and developing of the educational curriculum is one the key priorities of Ministry of Education (MoE). In this regard, improvement in quality, content and the process of distributing of textbooks to schools, Madrasas, and all government and private educational centers is one of the topmost priorities of MoE. We believe that without having quality curriculum and textbooks, we will not be able to achieve the sustainable development goals with regard to education in our country.

To achieve the mentioned goals and an efficient education system, we kindly request our dedicated teachers and committed school administrators who are the educators of the future generation across the country to make endless efforts to support the active learning process using the textbooks and do their best to nurture the future generation to become informed and educated citizens who are critical thinkers and have the religious and national values. Teachers should begin their lessons every day with a sense of accountability and renewed commitment in order for their students to grow into civil, responsible and effective citizens, and serve as the architects of Afghanistan's future development.

Furthermore, I kindly request our motivated students who are the country's future valuable assets that they should not neglect the opportunities provided to them and respectfully utilize the teaching and learning process using the scientific curiosity and benefit immensely from the knowledge of their teachers.

Last but not least, I highly appreciate the endless efforts of educational experts, educationists, and technical partners in curriculum development that actively worked day and night to develop this textbook. I wish them success from Almighty Allah in their noble efforts.

Last year, I spent my holidays in Saudi Arabia. I had a very good Flight from Kabul to Dubai. Flying over the plains, mountains and the oceans, I enjoyed the scenes.

I made my Ihram in Dubai and flew to Jeddah. Arriving there, I saw the people of different nationalities. When I reached Mecca Mukarrama, I rented a room in a hotel near to Masjid-e-Haram. Entering there, I prayed and started Tawwaf. I did two Rak'ats prayers to Moqam e Ibrahim and drank Zamzam water. Finally, I walked around Bytullah-e-Shareef seven rounds. Then I walked between Safa and Marwa seven times and made my hair cut. Thus I performed my Umrah.

From Mecca, I went to Madina Munawwara and stayed there for eight days. I attended five times prayer in the Mosque of Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) regularly, every day. I visited the Shrine several times and prayed to Allah. I also visited many holy places of the city. At the end I returned to Kabul in a flight from Jeddah. Reading

- A. – Why is it important to know about greeting customs?
– How are International greetings different from local?

At Oxford International School, I learned that greeting customs differ from one country to another. Normally, students greet each other saying hi, hello, or good morning. However, each country has traditional way of greeting.

My Japanese friends occasionally like to use their famous “Ojigi” to greet each other. They bow to say good morning, hello or good bye. Dilip and Raj use the Indian Namaste to greet each other. They press the palms of their hands together and lift them up to their chins. Then they say “Namaste”. Filipino students shake hands, but close friends pat each other on the back and say “Kamusta”. John, Jack and Patrick from Britain greet each other with a hug. If they meet someone for the first time, they shake hands. Our friends, from the Emirates Saleh and Ahmad, shake hands with all of us every morning.

Going to an International School helped me learn about different greeting customs.

Reading

A. – In which subjects do you use maps?
– What do you use maps for? Why?

Map Reading

What are maps? Let us draw a very simple map to find out what it is. Take a piece of plain paper. Put your hand on it. Then with a pencil draw around your fingers and thumb. Make sure that you outlined each one carefully. Remove your hand from the paper. Mark your finger nails and knuckles. Now you have a "map" of your hand.

There are different kinds of maps: like the world map, city map, road map, street and house maps. We use directions on a map to show us places. The main directions are east, west, north and south. A compass is used to see the directions.

Maps also show size, climate and physical features such as rivers, mountains and deserts of a country. Signs or symbols are used to show things on a map. Symbols replace words by pictures to make the map easier to understand. These symbols are shown in a small box called the "key" or "legend" given on the side of a map.

Now, let's look at the map of our Country Afghanistan. What does it tell us? It shows that it is located at the south of Asia. It has lots of mountains and two famous rivers "Amu and Helmand". The region is important because it has large reserves of mines, oil and natural gas.

B. First read the map carefully. Then read the questions and answer them.

- What does the map "key" tell us?
 - The names of countries.
 - The meanings of the symbols on the map.
 - The color of flags.
- What does the "compass rose" in the upper right corner tell you?
 - Time.
 - Distance.
 - Direction.
- Can you name three countries that have oil?

- Which countries are in north of Afghanistan?

- What is the capital of Uzbekistan?

- Which country covers a large area, Afghanistan or Tajikistan?

A memorable day

One of my happiest memories is the first day in secondary school in UK. I was fourteen years old when my family moved to UK. I liked life in the United Kingdom and got used to it easily. However, I was always proud of living in my own country. One day, the school took us on a field trip to the museum. The museum was full of interesting things to see. I listened carefully to what the teacher had to say about the museum. Our teacher told us that the flag of every country in the world hangs in this hall. Hurriedly my eyes searched for the Afghanistan flag.

I felt proud of my national flag. My teacher and classmates were touched by my patriotism. I wanted to get home and tell my family about the museum. We spent the rest of the day telling everyone how wonderful it was to visit the museum and interesting places. How nice is for a child to love his country and be proud of it. It was a memorable day indeed.

No more Housework!

It was 4:30 p.m. in the afternoon when Rena Taher came home from work. She walked into the living room and looked at her three children. The children are 14, 12 and 9 years old. They were watching TV.

The living room was a mess. There were empty glasses and dirty socks on the floor. There were cookies on the sofa. Games and toys were everywhere. Rena became angry.

"This place is a mess!" she told her children. "I can't work all day and then do housework all evening! I'm not going to do housework! "And so, Rena didn't do housework. She didn't clean. She didn't wash dishes. She didn't wash clothes. Every evening she sat on the sofa and watched TV. After two weeks, every plate, fork, and glass in the house was dirty. All the children's clothes were dirty, too. Every garbage can was full. The house was a mess.

Then, one day Rena came home from work and got a big surprise. The kitchen was clean. The children had cleaned the kitchen! The next day, the living room was cleaned, and the children were washing their clothes.

Rena told her children. "Ok, I'll do housework again. But you have to help me." Now Rena and her three children do the housework together. Then they all sit on the sofa and watch TV.
